

In the spirit of the Supreme Court Betamax case, the FCC should specifically deny the broadcast industry's demand/request/whatever for a "broadcast flag". The Supreme Court ruled that viewers have a right to time-shift programming and it is the FCC's place to uphold that ruling.